Target Partners with Community Action Partnership of Kern Food Bank

Target to present $2,500 check to Food Bank Tuesday, August 31

Bakersfield, CA - August 24, 2010 – The Community Action Partnership of Kern Food Bank is very pleased to be receiving a $2,500 donation from Target.

Representatives from Target and Congressman Kevin McCarthy will be on hand at the Food Bank on Tuesday, August 31 at 8:30am where there will be an official check presentation.

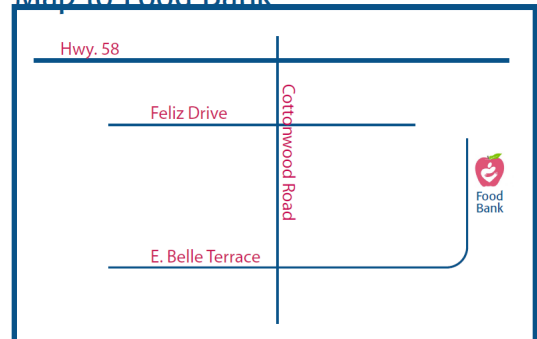

“Since opening our first stores in 1962, Target has partnered with non-profit organizations, guests and team members to help meet community needs,” said Dustin Hamilton, district team leader, Target. “Target is proud to partner with the Community Action Partnership of Kern to provide food to families who need it in Kern County.”

Members of the press are welcome to attend this special check presentation at the Community Action Partnership of Kern Food Bank.
